

MetaKids™

A complete line of children's nutritional formulas designed to help support growth and development

Beyond the Basics

For babies and young children, balanced nutrition is especially important for healthy growth and development. During this tender season of life, proper nutrition is a top priority.

Kids' little bodies hold big potential, which is why we've created a complete line of nutritional support formulas to help keep up with growing bodies. MetaKids goes beyond your basic multivitamin—with a line of products that provides a full spectrum of nutrients, omega-3s, and probiotics to support overall health.

Kids can have ever-changing tastes, and helping them receive proper nutrition can be especially challenging. To help make your job easier, we've created formulas with chewable and liquid delivery forms. They go down well and come in flavours kids will love!
